With reference to the attached file on communist handbills printed in the Japanese language bearing on the "January 28 Anniversary," I have to report that diligent enquiries made by the Chinese staff of this office fail to bring to light any definite information concerning the origin of these handbills. Although the literature purports to emanate from the "Third Fleet Sailors' Conference," there is every reason to believe that it is propaganda issued by the Kiangsu Military Committee of the Chinese Communist Party.

At 5.30 p.m. on 5-2-33, Zung Ah Hai (陳阿海), owner of a Chinese theatre at No. 45 Kwenming Road, brought to this station an anonymous letter which he had received through the post at 9.30 a.m. 5-2-33 (Translation attached).

This letter states that as the Theatre failed to observe the anniversary of the commencement of the Sino-Japanese conflict on 28-1-33 by declaring a holiday, the Theatre must close on 6-2-33, failing which, the writer will "take action".

Arrangements have been made to watch the theatre on that date.

The receipt of the two attached letters by the Chekiang and Shanse Cinema Theatres would seem to indicate that Shanghai is to be subjected to the same treatment as has Paiping during the past month. At the latter city owing to the agitation against amusement resorts, practically every cinema there has been forced to close its doors.

Again referring to the letters. The threat that violence would ensue failure to follow the instructions contained in them, seems to have been something in the nature of an empty threat.

To date nothing of an untoward nature has been reported. Despite the failure of the writers of the letters to fulfill their threats, careful watch is being maintained of the movement generally.

An extract of the Intelligence Report dated January 26-30, 1933, referring to the Nanking Theatre incident of January 28, 1933 will be found attached.

1st Anniversary of the commencement of Sino-Japanese Hostilities in Shanghai (January 28) has come at the time when the robbery war in Manchuria and North China is becoming more and more serious. Crush the plot for a second war in Shanghai.

Brethren,

The 1st Anniversary of the commencement of Sino-Japanese Hostilities in Shanghai is here. On that day the Commander ordered us to kill the Chinese for the sake of peace in the Orient and for the protection of Japanese lives and property. We fought for two months, unconsciously obeying the orders issued by our officers. In the midst of the hostilities, the Japanese residents made the following demands:-
"Cease fighting. Give us food for we have no money." The directors of the Maigai, Kung Dah, Mitsui and Mitsubishi smiled because they believed that the Chinese will purchase their goods as a result of this fighting. The sailors and soldiers who came to Shanghai were labourers and farmers. They were dismissed from the factories and their lands were seized by the landowners immediately after their departure. What will become of their families? Many of their parents, wives and children committed suicide at home owing to poverty. The dismissed sailors and soldiers, who were mostly wounded, were unable to find employment.

Guarantee the living of the families of the dead and wounded.

Demand the abolition of the patrol system.

Guarantee employment for dismissed men.

Demand the establishment of a Sailors' Club.

Demand double pensions.

Demand daily duty of six hours.

Demand leave once in two days.

Demand the abolition of the special restaurants for sailors.

Oppose discriminating treatment between officers and men.

Demand freedom of reading and sports.

The Government of capitalists and landowners is plotting to stage war on a large scale along the Yangtze and we will be sent to the first line of fighting.

Oppose a second war in Shanghai.

Demand the stopping of the war of aggression in Manchuria and North China.

Draw with the plot to attract the Chinese Soviet Red Army along the Yangtze.

In the midst of hostilities in Shanghai the war of the World Economic Conference is being staged and we will be sent to the first line of fighting.

Long live the revolutionary sailors and soldiers of China and Japan.

Long live the workers and peasants of China and Japan.

Address to Sailors on the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Karl Ferdinand Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg.

Dear Brethren,

At the moment when the war has assumed a serious aspect the anniversary of the death of Karl and Rosa has come. These two men as leaders of labourers and farmers in Germany struggled bravely during the Great War against Imperialist war. This struggle of the masses succeeded at last in overthrowing the Kaiser. It has also developed into a struggle for the downfall of capitalists and landowners who are the prime movers of war. The German Social Democrats who are the running dogs of capitalists and landowners in conjunction with the military authorities suppressed this movement and murdered both Karl and Rosa.

The Japanese capitalists and landowners and militarists are favouring war. The bogus "Proletariat Party" and the "Social Labourers and Farmers Party" are supporting them and attempting to deceive us. Nevertheless the spirit of Karl and Rosa still lives for us, sailors, soldiers, labourers and farmers of all nations.

Oppose a second war in Shanghai for the benefit of capitalists and labourers.

Keep fighting immediately in Manchuria and North China.
Long live the Union of the Japanese and Chinese Revolutionary soldiers and sailors.

Participate in the Sailors' Congress (Conference).

Long live Karl and Rosa, our leaders.

The Shangkaiwan Incident has become serious. Let us oppose the massacre of Chinese labourers and farmers. Dear Sailors, our brethren,

The Japanese Government of capitalists and landowners which occupied Shangkaiwan is attempting to make you kill Chinese farmers and labourers in the Shanghai area. The emergency call which started three days ago is nothing but preparation for the massacre. Soon your leave will be prohibited. Prepare yourselves discussing with men of all squads and companies ways and means to oppose this order. Do not kill the Chinese brethren. Oppose the war of the capitalists and landowners. Submit demands to officers. Let us join the Sailors Kyogikai.

The Kyoto Division is preparing for the 1st Anniversary of the Shanghai Incident. The Shankaikuan affair has become very serious. Let us oppose this war which is only for the benefit of capitalists and landlords.

Our dear sailor Brothers.

Capitalists, landlords and our officers have declared this war is for prosperity but what benefit will we get out of it all? Owing to the war we are trained terribly hard and the drop in the rate of Yen means that we are in fact getting only half pay. We are unable to bear this in Shanghai where commodities are dear. Let us demand double pay and six-hour duty per day and organize a Sailors Club.

Owing to the emergency budget of Yen2,200,000,000.00 taxes have again been increased. Our parents, who cannot pay the farmment, are compelled to surrender their farms to landlords. Factories workers have been dismissed and there are at present over 3,500,000 unemployed.

The Kyoto Division is standing by. The Shanghai manoeuvres have been held off the mouth of the Yangtse. The action will be commenced shortly. You will be confined to barracks until orders are issued ~~to~~ to kill the Chinese labourers and farmers. Oppose the prohibition of leave. Do not kill the Chinese brethren.

Labourers and farmers established their own government in China two years ago and our Red Army is fighting against the Chinese government of capitalists and landlords. They are attempting to attack the Red Army of our brethren.

Oppose the war for the sake of capitalists and landowners.

Do not attack the Chinese Soviet government of farmers and labourers.

Join hands with Chinese brethren.

Throng to the officer room on January 28 to submit your demands.

LETTER RECEIVED BY MANAGEMENT OF CHEKIANG THEATRE.

At 10.40 a.m. 28-1-33 Mr. H.C. Zimmerman, manager of the Chekiang Cinema, 123 Chekiang Road, brought the attached letter, a translation of which is given below, to the station. He stated that this was handed to a clerk named Liang Tse Yang (梁子陽) in the Cinema, at 9 a.m. this morning 28-1-33, by a male Chinese of the coolie class who immediately left afterwards. No description is available of this man.

TRANSLATION.

"The anniversary of the 28th of January is coming and the unfortunate conditions are still prevailing in Chapei whilst the blood has not yet dried in 'Niam Hong'. Our people should remember and be sorry. It is understood that we know you people must close your theatre for several days for the purpose of commemorating the anniversary of the people who were killed in opposing China's enemy. It is a disgrace and will be ridiculed by the world to see those carrying on their business in cold blood. At the conclusion of a meeting held by several associations it was resolved that all cinemas, amusement halls, etc., be closed for business, commencing 28-1-33 for three days. In the event of failing to do so, we are determined that force shall be used against them and the people who are ignorantly enjoying their amusement."

They, thereupon formed into processional order and marched along Ward Road to Pingliang Road Market, where they dispersed quietly. The following is a summarized translation of two handbills, copies of which were later found on the waste ground in front of the factory in question.

- Opposition against the attack of North China by Japanese Imperialists as well as the anti-Communist campaign.
  - Downfall of the Kuomintang which has adopted a "non-resistance" policy.

Six cloth posters which were left by members of the crowd on Linching Road bridge bear the following inscriptions:-

"Association of Shanghai Students for Staging Theatrical Performances for the support of Volunteer Armies".

"The Blood of Martyrs will stain Woosung and Shanghai forever! The Brave Determination will awaken the people's soul!

International Problems Research Society of the New Chinese College" (formerly known as the Chinese Public School, 59 Rue Chapsal).

Sung Mei (勝美) silk Weaving Factory Workers".

"There is the justice in the cruel Japanese invasion and aggression resulting in the sacrifice of blood and flesh which has created this lamentable state".

"Might is unworthy of discussion. The warriors' loyalty and patriotism in defending the territory will live for a thousand years.

China Aero Institute - commemoration of the "January 28" Anniversary

In commemoration of the "January 28" Anniversary, members of the China Aero Institute held a meeting in the Chinese Y.M.C.A. 201 Szechuen Road, between 2 and 4 p.m. January 28. Apart from delivering a speech dwelling on the local Sino-Japanese hostilities Yen Tsong Yao (溫宗堯), who presided, reported the zeal of overseas Chinese in the Philippine Islands in offering contributions for aviation construction following the visit there by General Oong Tsao Wan. In addition, he stated that an order had been received from the Ministry of Communications instructing the Association to amalgamate with the China Aviation Cooperative Association. On hearing this, the attendance became disorderly and it was found impossible to continue the proceedings.

It will be remembered that a feud exists between the first mentioned body promoted by the National Salvation Federation of Various Shanghai Bodies (anti-Yaung Ching Vek Clique) and the latter body sponsored by the National Government) (Vide I.R. 16/1/33).

Meeting of local bodies in support of North Eastern Volunteer Armies - scheduled

Under the auspices of the local Kuomintang, a meeting of representatives of local public bodies will be held at 1 p.m. January 30, in the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, North Hovan Road, with the object of discussing ways and means to send comforts to the troops and volunteer armies engaged in the anti-Japanese campaign.

"The 1st anniversary of the commencement of Sino-Japanese Hostilities at Shanghai 28-1-32 comes, yet ruins in the War Zones in Chapei and the sacrificial and spiritual blood of the marvelous 19th Route Army during the Battle of Miaoehongsheng ( 庙行镇 ) have ever existed.

Country, Brethren, what would you feel about it? Is it a red letter day that we should not only excite grief, but also find our way to get rid of the memorial day of humiliation.

You are known to be one of the patriots, you should suspend your business for a few days with a view to memorializing the January 28, anniversary in honour of these late heroes and patriots who sacrificed their lives for China. Notwithstanding a number of 'cold blood' capitalists who have no knowledge of being ashamed and who wish only to obtain more money to profit themselves and carry on their business only for amusement. As to this point of view all theatres are requested to suspend business for three days commencing from Jan. 28, 1933.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE JANUARY 28 INCIDENT.

Representatives of people in various walks of life in Shanghai held a commemoration meeting of the anniversary of the January 28 Incident on January 28 in the Young Men Lecturing Society, Small West Gate. During the function, the following four telegrams were drafted and were sent out on January 29:-

1) Telegram addressed to the people throughout the country:-

A year has elapsed since the January 28 Incident. The Three Eastern Provinces have not only remained unrecovered, but Shanhaikwan has fallen into the hands of the enemy, while Jehol is now in danger. As the League of Nations can not be relied upon, we should rise and save the country. We hope that all the gallant officers and men in the country will follow the example of the 19th Route Army and hasten to the front. Let us raise a large sum of money to buy aeroplanes and arms. The boycott movement must be conducted as far as possible.

2) Telegram addressed to the League of Nations:-

Notwithstanding Japan's formation of a bogus organization in the Three Eastern Provinces and her attack on Jehol, the League has so far failed to take any definite steps to deal with the matter. It is to be hoped that the League will adopt immediate effective measures to stop the Japanese aggression. The League will be held responsible for any breach of the peace in East Asia.

3) Telegram addressed to military commanders throughout the country:-

All military men should emulate the spirit displayed by the 19th Route Army and attempt to recover the lost territory. In this grave national crisis, you should mobilize your troops to save the nation.

4) Telegram addressed to the people:-

We should all contribute funds towards the purchase of aeroplanes to strengthen the national defence.

The Loss Sustained by Local Factories:

According to investigations made by the Social Bureau, the losses sustained by local factories during the Sino-Japanese hostilities amount to $39,000,000. A detailed report will be made public soon.

The Noulens couple have now been in prison for several months. A number of notables and learned persons of various countries petitioned in to grant a special amnesty to the couple.

January 28 - Anniversary of Commencement of Sino-Japanese Hostilities at Shanghai

SH 422

While it is difficult at this stage to forecast events on this anniversary, the fact that some twenty five different kinds of communistic leaflets have come into possession of the Municipal Police is an indication that the "reds" plan to take advantage of any observance that may be held. This literature after dealing with the Japanese invasion of China and the aggression of Imperialists in general, exhorts the labouring masses, soldiers, etc. to stage demonstrations and hold meetings in factories, schools, etc.

While proposals are on foot by various self appointed "committees" to visit the devastated areas, particularly Nanking, where the tomb of the unknown warriors of the 19th Route Army is said to be located, the only meeting so far scheduled to be held inside Settlement limits is that of the Chinese Bar Association convened for 2 p.m. in the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, North Hunan Road. The Association, as is known, has within its ranks a number of radical elements such as the first named (F. H. H.) and at the moment it is impossible to say if proceedings will conclude quietly and that there will be no afterwards liberty to hold to indictment or arrest.

Many efforts will be made to convert the first phase of complete liberty to prove a sound to good order and that information as to present will be distributed by or before the end of January 28.

MISCELLANEOUSProposal To Forego One Meal On January 28.

The Shanghai Citizens Federation yesterday sent the following circular to its members:-

The anniversary of the January 28 Incident, the most tragic event in the history of Woosung and Shanghai, is approaching. In order to commemorate this incident and as a mark of our sorrow, we have made a proposal to forego one meal on January 28 and to contribute the money thus saved to the volunteer armies. We have printed posters to be affixed to doors. We hope you will do your utmost to propagate the idea. We have sent a letter to the Bankers Association asking it to notify its member banks to open a special account in the subscriptions to the Volunteers of the North-East. Please send your contributions to the banks and also do not forget to hoist the national flag at half-mast, suspend all amusements and save one meal as a mark of our grief.

To labourers, peasants, students, and poor people in cities !

After the occupation of Shanhaikwan, the Japanese butchers will occupy Jehol, Tientsin, Peiping and all the northern part of China. This invasion receives the support of the British and French Imperialists who are thus expecting to extend their spheres of influence in China and to use China as a base for invading Soviet Russia.

The League of Nations - an organization of Imperialists - and Lytton's report give material assistance to the Japanese and are advocating the International control of China.

The U.S.A. is thinking of establishing its rule in the Far East and seizing the whole of China. Although Japan and the U.S.A. are opposed to each other, the latter is far from assisting China but anxious to see that China follows the steps of the Philippine Islands. Only Soviet Russia sympathizes the poor Chinese masses. The success of the social revolution in Soviet Russia is sufficient to convince us that we should follow the steps of Soviet Russia in order to secure our emancipation.

Labourers ! You should oppose the deduction of wages, and the increase of working ~~hours~~ hours. You should demand more pay and less work, food allowance, and unemployed relief. Organize your own guards and force your demands by declaring strikes.

Peasants ! You should oppose heavy taxation, rent, and usury and seize land. You should organize Peasant Self-Protection Corps and Soviet Governments.

Soldiers ! You should fight Japanese Imperialists and join the Red Armies.

Students and poor people ! You should join labourers and peasants in the anti-Imperialist movement and organize anti-Japanese boycott, and boycott against the goods of other imperialists.

War and famine refugees ! You should organize yourselves and struggle for relief in conjunction with the unemployed.

Communist Party and of the Chinese Communist Youth League.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter to Peasants and Refugees in the Suburb of Shanghai", purporting to emanate from the Propaganda Department of the Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Eastern District on January 22, 1933.

Peasants, refugees and poor people,

The melancholy anniversary of January 28 is approaching together with the general offensive of North China by the Japanese Imperialists.

On January 28 last year the labourers, peasants, soldiers and the people in Shanghai automatically armed themselves to resist the invasion of the Japanese imperialists, which resulted in the sacrifice of thousands and thousands of lives. However, the Kuomintang swears to become the running dogs of the imperialists and has compelled the soldiers of the 19th Route Army to leave Shanghai thereby accomplishing the "sale" of Shanghai to the Japanese Imperialists. The people in the war area have suffered immensely.

The Red Army which is the only and genuine anti-Imperialist defence of labourers and peasants is being confronted with the opposition of the Kuomintang which is concentrating its full strength to suppress the existence of that army.

Our slogans are as follows :-

- 1) Let all peasants, refugees and poor people unite!
- 2) Commemorate January 28 by means of struggles and participate in the demonstrations to be staged on that date!
- 3) Extend the racial revolutionary warfare to oppose the attack on North China by the Japanese Imperialists!
- 4) Oppose the surrender of the Kuomintang to the Imperialists and its betrayal of the people's interests!
- 5) Oppose the fourth anti-Communist campaign and support the anti-Japanese policy of the Red Army!
- 6) Welcome the despatch of "Red" troops to restore the lost territory and oppose any new attack on China by the Japanese and other Imperialists!
- 7) Raise contributions to support the Volunteer Army!
- 8) Refuse to pay revenues and taxes to the Kuomintang and landlords!
- 9) Besiege Kuomintang organs and demand an immediate issue of relief!
- 10) Oppose the White Terror of the Kuomintang!

We presume that the bombardment of Chapai and Woosung and the massacre of large numbers of our countrymen by the Japanese forces are still vivid in your memory.

The Japanese forces have not as yet ceased their attacks upon China. They have occupied Shanhaikwan and are attacking Jehol. They are ready to occupy Tientsin and Peking whilst the French and British Imperialists will assist them in partitioning China in order to invade Soviet Russia. We have to unite with the masses and drive away the Imperialists by force of arms.

The Kuomintang still persists in its non-resistance policy. It has failed to support the volunteer armies in the North-East but suppressed patriotic movements. It has failed to guard Shanhaikwan but asked for mercy from the League of Nations which is a gang of robbers. Therefore let us overthrow the Kuomintang and fight the Imperialists.

Only the Soviet and the Red Armies are against Imperialism. The Soviet Government of China has already issued a circular telegram declaring war upon Japan but the Kuomintang Government has dispatched troops to besiege the Red Armies not allowing them to come into contact with the Japanese forces. Let us support the Red Armies which are fighting for the unification of China.

Let us organize a revolutionary military committee; kill the officials of the Kuomintang who advocate the non-resistance policy; oppose the contracting of treaties damaging our national rights and organize Volunteer Armies to proceed to North to fight the Japanese Imperialists.

Chinese Communist Party.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter to local unemployed workers bearing on the January 28 Anniversary", purporting to emanate from the Propaganda Department of the Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapei on January 22, 1933.

January 28 is a brilliant anniversary on which date the labourers, peasants, and soldiers in Shanghai automatically armed themselves to resist the massacre of Japanese Imperialists. With the object of becoming the loyal servants of the Japanese and other imperialists, the Kuomintang has devised its most ways and means to oppress the 19th Route Army and resorted to drastic measures to deal with anti-Japanese and anti-imperialist movements.

On January 28 last year thousands and thousands of labourers and peasants were massacred by Japanese imperialists while the dwelling houses of the labourers in the war zone were burned down. Following the "sale" of Shanghai by the Kuomintang, workers are subject to all kinds of ill-treatment from the hands of Chinese and foreign capitalists. They are also exposed to cold and hunger and liable to be arrested and executed if they conduct any struggle in order to maintain their livelihood.

All unemployed workers throughout Shanghai are therefore advised to rise and join the demonstrations to be held on January 28 and oppose any attack on workers by the Japanese Imperialists, the Kuomintang and capitalists.

Propaganda Department of the Kiangsu
Provincial Committee of the Chinese Communist Party.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter to toiling masses in connection with the January 28 Anniversary", purporting to emanate from the Shanghai Special Western District Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapei on January 28, 1933.

To peasants, labourers and the toiling masses.

You can never forget the January 28 Anniversary created by the Japanese Imperialists last year. In order to commemorate this anniversary which is fast approaching, you should hold processions, stage demonstrations and declare a general strike in order to oppose a second massacre in Shanghai by the Japanese Imperialists who have since commenced their attack on North China. Under such a critical stage the Kuomintang is still suppressing the anti-Japanese and anti-Imperialist movements of the people, assisting the foreign Imperialists to exterminate the North-Eastern Volunteer Army as well as the Red Army of the toiling masses. You should therefore intensify the following demands in commemoration of the January 28 Anniversary.

Let toiling masses in China and in Soviet Russia unite to oppose all imperialists.

Support the Provisional Central Government of the Chinese Soviet Republic and declare war against Japan.

Let the masses arm themselves and participate in revolutionary racial struggles.

Organize "Japanese goods Picketing Groups," confiscate Japanese goods and divide the proceeds among unemployed workers as well as war and famine refugees.

Support the North-Eastern Volunteer Army and organize "Determined-to-Die Corps".

Taking advantage of the attack on China by the Imperialists, the foreign and Chinese capitalists are intensifying their oppression on the labouring masses such as (1) addition of work, (2) reduction of pay and imposition of fines (3) dismissal of workers, etc. You should submit the following demands to the capitalists prior to the approach of the lunar year-end and the January 28 Anniversary :-

1. That the rice-bonus system be restored.
2. That the dismissal of workers be opposed and that retirement gratuities be issued.
3. That any addition in work and reduction of wages be opposed.
4. That dismissed workers be reinstated.
5. That workers be given every Sunday off with full pay.
6. That double pay and bonus be given to workers at the year-end.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter to Unemployed Workers in connection with the January 28 Anniversary", purporting to ~~emerge~~ from the Shanghai Western Special District Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapei on January 22, 1933.

Unemployed workers,

As a result of the bombardment on Woosung and Chapei, thousands and thousands of labourers, peasants, and toiling masses have sustained starvation and unemployment. As the year-end is approaching and the weather is getting colder, the livelihood of unemployed workers is becoming more difficult day by day.

The attack on China by the Japanese imperialists has become more serious than before. With the assistance of the League of Nations, coupled with the corrupt rule of the Kuomintang, the Japanese imperialists have occupied Shanhaikwan and are contemplating to attack other parts in the North East. At the same time they are despatching war ships to China berthed in the vicinity of Shanghai and along the coast of the Yangtze River with a view to commencing a second massacre.

This is obvious that the imperialists are making further progress in the attack on Soviet Russia and the division of China.

Unemployed workers, you should rise and unite, and effect the following for the salvation of the country and for the realization of your emancipation :-

1. Hold processions and stage demonstrations in commemoration of the January 28 anniversary.
2. Unite with the employed workers to denounce the oppression of the capitalists.
3. Support the Provisional Government of the Chinese Soviet and declare war against Japan.
4. Organize "Picketing Groups" for Japanese goods and turn the proceeds for the relief of the unemployed.
5. Organize labourers' volunteer armies and to commence revolutionary racial warfare.
6. Surround capitalists to demand work and the issue of retirement gratuities.
7. Besiege the offices of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai and the S.M.C. to demand work, food, lodging and winter clothing.
8. Organize "Clothes and Rice Distribution Groups" and seize rice and clothes from rice and clothes shops.
9. Let unemployed workers occupy vacant houses and refuse to pay house rent as well as water and electricity charges.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE JANUARY 28 INCIDENT.

The Shanghai Bar Association had arranged to hold a meeting in the Ningpo Provincials Association, Thibet Road, in commemoration of the January 28 Incident. It has now been decided to hold the meeting in the Chamber of Commerce at 2 p.m. January 28.

People Asked to Fast For One Meal. Donate Money Thus Saved To War Fund.

The Shanghai Citizens Federation has issued the following manifesto:-

"The frequent invasion of Chinese territory endangers the existence of our country. The only way to salvation is to resist over a prolonged period. Our country covers a vast area and is densely populated. If all the wealthy families will give up some of their luxuries and save the money for the defence of our country, a large amount could be collected.

"The Federation now requests all citizens to fast for one meal and to donate the money saved to the war fund. Look at the Japanese. They eat little and are more thrifty than the Chinese people. During this national crisis, we should forget our eating and bear in mind our national calamity. The wounds of the January 28 Incident are still fresh in our minds.

"Let us fast for one meal on January 28 in commemoration of the Incident, and donate the money to the war fund."

The Federation has petitioned the Shanghai Special District Kuomintang requesting it to permit the Federation to propagate its suggestion of fasting by disseminating handbills from aeroplanes during the Aerial Navigation National Salvation Week. The Federation suggests that various Kuomintang members broadcast the proposal. Slogans will be distributed to all public bodies and an advertisement propaganda will be published in all newspapers. The subject of the propaganda will be "Save a meal, donate savings to war fund." The money contributed will be deposited in banks and a list of the contributions will be published in all newspapers. The Kuomintang is requested to sanction the propaganda.

A circular letter to the same effect has been sent to the various public bodies requesting them to observe the proposal to fast for one meal and to appropriate the money saved for the north eastern volunteers or for the purchase of an aeroplane to be named "The January 28 Incident".

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR JANUARY 28 MARTYRS.

The Preparatory Committee of the Shanghai Various Public Bodies to offer sacrifice to the January 28 Martyrs publishes the following advertisement in the Shun Pao:-

The tragic anniversary of January 28 is approaching. A year ago our heroes were shedding their warm blood in war torn Shanghai. And now when we think also of the situation in the North, which is far more serious than that in the south, we are plunged into the depth, of sorrow.

In order to console the spirits of the dead heroes, we are making preparations to offer sacrifice at the Kiangnan Tomb of Unknown Heroes to the numerous war heroes who died in the defence of Shanghai. This Committee requests the public to attend the memorial service and to send mourning scrolls.

The service will begin at 9 a.m. January 28. Floral wreaths and mourning scrolls will be received by Mr. Hu Han Chung, in the Fu Tan University, Kiangnan.

JAN 19 1933

Summarized translation of a communist circular entitled "General Principles of Propaganda in connection with the January 28 Anniversary", dated January 8, 1933, purporting to emanate from the Central Propaganda Department of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapel on January 18, 1933.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF PROPAGANDA IN CONNECTION WITH THE JANUARY 28 ANNIVERSARY.

- 1) The Extension of the War of the Japanese and other Imperialists to partition China.

With the support of the British and French Imperialists the Japanese Imperialists are enforcing their policy of partitioning China and invading the U.S.S.R. whilst the U.S.A., in order to prevent the Japanese from advancing southward, urges them to advance northward. Therefore the struggles of the American, Japanese and British Imperialists for the control of China and the Pacific Ocean have become more acute, and under such circumstances the extensive labouring, peasant and poor masses of China have to fight hard for existence.

- 2) The Suppression by the evil Kuomintang of the North Eastern Volunteer Armies and the Anti-Imperialist Movement

The Kuomintang Government has failed to assist the North-Eastern Volunteer Armies who are fighting the Japanese forces in Manchuria. This shows that the Kuomintang persists in its non-resistance policy towards the Japanese invasion. Therefore we cannot expect the Kuomintang Government to carry out racial struggles for securing the emancipation of the Chinese nation.

- 3) The 4th Anti-Communist Campaign

The 4th Anti-Communist campaign of the Kuomintang has utterly failed. Instead of being suppressed, the various Red Armies, with the support of huge numbers of labourers and peasants, are developing and will gain final victories.

- 4) To strengthen the anti-Japanese struggles by consolidating the directorship of the Party.

Facts have shown that only the labourers, peasants and poor masses are resisting the aggression of the Japanese and other Imperialists so as to effect the emancipation and unification of China, the success of which depends upon the directorship of the Communist Party. Therefore, let us support the Party and assist in its anti-Imperialist movements.

To the people throughout China,

With the open assistance rendered by the League of Nations and also by the French and British Imperialists the Japanese Imperialists have commenced their attack on North-China. This tends to accelerate the partition of China and the enslavement of her people. The aggression of the Imperialists brings about a wholesale massacre of the peaceful inhabitants and the destruction of cities and villages.

As a result of the "non-resistance" policy of the Kuomintang a large number of soldiers have been killed and, by the order of General Chiang Kai-shek, the militarists of the Kuomintang are retreating in every instance. This fosters the aggression of the Japanese and other imperialists. On the other hand, the Kuomintang is striving to suppress all anti-imperialist struggles and armed volunteer forces.

The only excuse given by the Kuomintang to cancel its crimes is the allegation that with the existence of the Chinese Soviet, the Kuomintang cannot mobilize its entire strength for national defence. This excuse is condemned by the Chinese Soviet Republic as a lame one. However, the Chinese people are willing to defend themselves and the Kuomintang soldiers agree to offer armed resistance to the Japanese imperialists. It is only the racial revolutionary warfare of the armed people that might successfully put an end to the aggression of the Japanese Imperialists.

The Chinese Soviet Government and the Revolutionary Military Committee announce to the Chinese people that the Chinese Red Army is prepared to enter into war alliance with any army to oppose the aggression of the Japanese Imperialists on the condition that the Nationalist Government observe the following :-

1. Suspend the attack on Soviet areas.
2. Assure the people at once that they will be given full democratic privileges (freedom of assembly, publication and speech).
3. Arm the people at once (organize armed volunteer armies to safeguard China and to secure her independence, unification and the protection of her territories).
4. Request that the above announcement be supported by the Chinese people and soldiers who will thus unite all anti-Japanese, anti-Imperialist and anti-Kuomintang struggles and extend the racial revolutionary warfare of the armed masses to oppose Japanese and other imperialists.

Mao Shih Tung : Chairman of the Provisional
Central Government of the Chinese Soviet Republic.

Hong Ying : Vice Chairman.

Committee of the Labourers and Peasants' Red Army.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter addressed to workers employed in Japanese cotton mills bearing on the January 28 Anniversary", purporting to emanate from the Propaganda Department of the Shanghai Western Special District Committee of the Chinese Communist Party, which was obtained by the Municipal Police on January 18, 1933.

The anniversary of the bombardment on Chapel and the massacre of toiling masses in that area by the Japanese Imperialists is fast approaching. From the beginning of this year the attack on China by the Japanese imperialist has been growing more serious day by day. They have now occupied Yuekwan and will soon invade Peiping and Tientsin. What has the reactionary Kuomintang done? It declares "non-resistance" against Japan, betrays the interests of the Chinese people and, under the auspices of the League of Nations which is an organ for the partition of China by the Imperialists, suppresses anti-Japanese movements and massacres anti-Japanese and anti-Imperialist masses.

The Red Armies of the revolutionary labourers and peasants and the North-Eastern Volunteer Armies of the toiling masses only are now resisting the Japanese imperialists.

Japanese cotton mill workers: January 28 is approaching. In order to oppose the Japanese Imperialists we should observe the following :-

- 1) Declare a general strike in commemoration of the January 28 Anniversary.
- 2) Hold "work-room meetings", processions and stage demonstrations in commemoration of the anniversary.
- 3) Organize "Japanese Goods Picketing Groups" and auction the confiscated goods for the relief of unemployed workers,
- 4) Organize labourers' volunteer armies to commence revolutionary racial warfare.
- 5) Support the Central Government of the Chinese Soviet and declare war against Japan.
- 6) Let the toiling masses in China and Soviet Russia unite and oppose all imperialists.

Japanese cotton mill workers!

You have worked with blood and sweat for the Japanese Imperialists and you are badly oppressed by them. The Japanese capitalists dismiss workers in large numbers, fail to pay retirement gratuity and bonus, and prolong working hours. As the year-end is approaching you should rise and make the following demands in order to maintain your livelihood :-

- Continue the issue of a rice bonus.
- Oppose the dismissal of workers.
- Oppose any increase of work.
- Oppose Sunday work and demand that workers be given every Sunday off with full pay.
- Oppose the reduction of wages.

At this critical moment when the Japanese imperialists are making desperate attacks upon Jehol and China proper and when the Kuomintang is prepared only to surrender before Imperialists, the Party headquarters at various places have to undertake the following tasks persistently on the occasion of the Anniversary of January 28:-

and

- (1) To organize/extend the Anti-Japanese movement of the masses by exploiting the recent invasion of China by the Japanese imperialists.
- (2) To organize the extensive masses in such a manner as to conduct armed struggles for effecting the emancipation of the Chinese race and for protecting the Soviet movement in China. Movements to further the anti-Japanese boycott, to support the North-Eastern Volunteer Armies, and to effect the release of persons arrested in connection with the Anti-Japanese propaganda also armed struggles should be carried out in various cities, factories, schools, and farming districts.
- (3) To extend the unemployment movement and organize strikes of workers of Japanese factories in Shanghai, Tientsin, Peiping, Tsingtao, and railway and arsenal workers in Manchuria. These movements will include the holding of demonstrations, flying meetings, and departmental meetings of factory workers in the commemoration of the January 28 Anniversary.
- (4) To undermine "Yellow" labour unions and anti-Japanese organizations of reactionaries by joining them and carrying out propaganda among their masses.
- (5) To conduct anti-Imperialist and pro-Soviet propaganda among "White" troops especially the 19th Route Army and the armies under Chang Hsueh Liang, Han Foh Jui, Tan Yu Ling and other militarists.
- (6) To explain to the public the success of the peaceful policy of Soviet Russia and the significance of the Soviet movement in China.

Summary translation of a secret circular entitled "Resolutions passed by the Provincial Committee on the January 28 Anniversary", purporting to emanate from the Kiangsu Provincial Committee, which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapei on January 15, 1933.

While the international imperialists are intensifying their attack on the Soviet and the partition of China, the Japanese imperialists are ferociously massacring the North-Eastern Volunteer Armies as well as the people in the North-East. Recently some 100,000 Japanese soldiers have been concentrated to attack Jehol. The Japanese imperialists contemplate to convert North China into their territory and hold a grand demonstration of their naval army forces in Shanghai on the occasion of the ~~January~~ 28 Anniversary with a view to attacking the proletariat.

Under such a critical state of affairs, the Kuomintang continued to practise its "non-resistance" policy and betrays the interests of the people. The general public should therefore intensify the Anti-Imperialist movement. The Kiangsu Provincial Committee, after exalting the anti-Imperialist activities in Shanghai, give the following instruction :-

Although the anti-Imperialist movement in Shanghai has assumed a lively aspect by fostering cert in labourers of the Old Ewo Cotton Mill and the Shanghai Power Co. to go strike, the students of the Zien Tsz Middle School to start agitation, and by publishing certain mosquito papers and wall newspapers in the Western District, the anti-imperialist movement in Shanghai is still to be regarded as pitiable. In view of the approach of the January 28 Anniversary, the following preparations must be made to commemorate the occasion :-

(1) Utilize the recent Japanese military outrages and organize mass movements to oppose the attack on Jehol. Intensify our propaganda on the barbarousness of Japanese Imperialism and eulogize the anti-Japanese spirit of the proletariat in Shanghai as well as of the 19th Route Army.

(2) Intensify anti-Japanese activities among factories and organize North-Eastern Volunteer Support Committees, Subscription Committees, memorial services to commemorate the fallen soldiers in anti-Japanese engagements, etc. among unemployed workers, schools, villages and barracks.

(3) Organize at once committees (1) to look after the refugees from war devastated areas such as Kiangwan, Woosung, Chenju, Nanziang and Chapei; (2) to care for the families of war victims; and (3) to deal with disabled soldiers of anti-Japanese engagements. Demand relief from the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, continue to boycott of Japanese goods, instigate the masses to participate in public functions, theatrical performances, memorial services and intensify anti-Japanese activities among the units of the 19th Route Army.

(4) Participate in and support publicly organized volunteers as well as other national salvation organizations.

(5) Establish without delay military departments in local anti-Imperialist organizations in order to extend and consolidate the organization of volunteer armies in Shanghai and endeavour to influence them, either directly or indirectly, to join the North-Eastern Volunteer Armies.

(6) Organize two large theatrical performances to support the North-Eastern Volunteer Army in the Eastern and Western Districts of Shanghai before January 28.

(7) Commence the boycott of Japanese goods and extend the organizations of committees to deal with the boycott and investigation of Japanese goods.

(8) Celebrate on an elaborate scale the success of the first 5-year plan of Soviet Russia, and support peace policy of Soviet Russia.

(9) Mobilize all anti-Imperialist organizations, public bodies, and soldiers engaged in anti-Japanese encounters to submit reports to the anti-Imperialist Inquiry Commission and make arrangements to welcome their arrival.

(10) Intensify anti-Imperialist activities among the unemployed workers of the San Yue Towel Factory, the Commercial Press Ltd., the Arsenal and other imperialistic enterprises and unite them with the year-end struggle of the peasants in the vicinity of Kiangwan.

(11) Issue propaganda announcing that the Red Army is the vanguard of anti-Imperialist movements and that the political power of Soviet Russia alone can bring about the emancipation of the Chinese masses from the iron heel of the imperialists and their running dogs - the Kuomintang.

(12) Make preparations to hold demonstrations on January 28 and public meetings in factories, schools, villages and barracks.

(13) Develop the various anti-Imperialist organizations so that they can be approached by the extensive masses.

Kiangsu Provincial Committee of the Chinese Communist Party.

Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Letter to the People in connection with the general meeting to be held in memory of the first Anniversary of death of the Martyrs killed on January 28" which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Western Chapei on January 15, 1923.

Dear labourers, peasants, soldiers, students and the revolutionary masses,

Under the protection of British and French imperialists, the Japanese imperialists on January 28 last year bombarded Chapei and blood-washed Shanghai, whereby thousands and thousands of labourers, peasants, students and of the toiling masses were killed under gunfire and poisonous gas. This was extremely tyrannic and inhuman. Chapei, Kiangwan and Woosung which were once busy places now present a devastated aspect and the inhabitants of these districts who had fortunately escaped death are destitute of bare necessities.

Although the blood stains of January 28 last year are not yet dried, the Japanese capitalists captured Shanhaikwan on January 3 this year and are now concentrating their attack on North China. The Japanese forces in Shanghai are also contemplating to have a second offensive on this city. The shameless ruling class of the Kuomintang have only fulfilled the duties of running dogs and, instead of offering resistance, have assisted the imperialists to arrest and massacre anti-Japanese and anti-imperialist masses. The latter must firmly unite and arm themselves to throw off the yoke of the imperialistic Kuomintang and establish a ~~genui~~ people's genuine political power - Soviet rule.

Declare a general strike of work, study, drill, and business, and hold demonstrations to commemorate the martyrs of January 28.

Hold "work-room meetings" in factories and "Flying" meetings in alleyways and on the streets.

Oppose the attack on North China by the Japanese imperialists and a second outbreak in Shanghai.

Oppose the sale of Shanghai, the Three Eastern Provinces and North China by the Kuomintang.

The relatives of the deceased martyrs should unite and attack the Kuomintang Government to demand the issue of a compassionate grant of $5,000 each.

The war-affected and famine stricken refugees should unite and demand food, lodging, and clothing from the Kuomintang Government.

Oppose the compulsory surrender of land at Pangpu.

Revolutionary soldiers and constables in Chinese territory should oppose the winter precautionary measures and demand double-pay at the end of the year.

Communist Propaganda

A large quantity of communist literature in the English and Chinese languages was discovered by the Municipal Police in a trunk carried on an unoccupied public ricsha on North Fokien Road at 10.15 a.m. January 24. Subsequent enquiries revealed that the person to whom the literature belonged resided at No. 117 Chekiang Road and that although he was accompanying the ricsha he made good his escape while the contents of the trunk were being subjected to a search by the Police. A search of the room occupied by this person at 117 Chekiang Road brought to light a further quantity of communist literature. The seized literature, which refers to the first anniversary of the commencement of the local Sino-Japanese hostilities which falls on January 28, will be taken before Court on the morning of January 25 when application will be made that it be confiscated.

Sir,

At 10 a.m. 24-1-33 whilst patrolling North Fokien Road U.P.C. 3273 stopped a public ricksha No. 8366, and searched a trunk which was on the passengers seat, the ricksha being otherwise unoccupied and discovered that the trunk was full of literature which he suspected was communistic. He brought same together with the ricksha to this station, where on examination the literature was found to be of a communistic nature and D.S. Tilton of the Special Branch, was informed. In the meantime the ricksha coolie named Tsang Foh Vung was closely questioned by the undersigned and other detectives with a view to ascertaining the source of the literature, and how it came to be in his possession. In answer to questions he stated that he had been hired by a man, a description of whom will be given later in this report, to take the property from 117 Chekiang Road, to the North Fokien Road market, this man stating that he would walk behind the ricksha and meet the coolie there. At the time of his arrest, when questioned by the U.P.C. the coolie stated that he had looked up and down N. Fokien Road but did not see the man who had hired him. Later he led detectives to the house from where he had carried the trunk at the above address, and a search was made there, as the result of which 4 other small parcels of a similar nature were found, and were seized by detectives.

Enquiries were also made at this house regarding the tenant of the room in which the literature was found, and it was ascertained that he had been residing there for about 2 months. He rented the room from an accountant of a Chinese medicine store which occupies the ground floor of the premises, who is at present in Ningpo, and this accountant is stated to be the only man who was aware of the name of the occupier. inmates of the house elicited the following description of the wanted man; - Age about 25 years, height 5'2/3" slim build, thin face, native of Canton, student type, always dresses in Chinese clothing.

The occupation or habits of this man are unknown to the other occupants of the house, as he did not associate with any of them, and spent most of his time away from the house. Detectives were posted at this house to wait for the possible return of the wanted man, and are still there but up to the present he has not returned and no persons have called to enquire for him.

An examination of the literature seized proved it to be all communistic, and application will be made to the S.S.D. Court for disposal of same on 25-1-33.
